Equitable Access

CEC 1.2

High expectations for learning and achievement for all students are not communicated, demonstrated/modeled.

Students:

- do not have access to a variety of tools and/or materials to meet their needs and do not have support for learning
- are not provided equitable* opportunities to respond and participate and do not engage
- do not share their interests and/or perspectives and do not accept others' interests and perspectives as worthy
- do not share their interests and/or perspectives nor build relationships and connect to their academic work

Differences related to background, identity, language, strengths, and challenges are not respected and affirmed.

High expectations for learning and achievement for all students are communicated, demonstrated/modeled but with limited impact on students.

Students:

- have access to a variety of tools and/or materials to meet their needs but are not encouraged to use them to support learning.
- are provided equitable* opportunities to respond and participate but are not encouraged to engage

Indicator 2.3

Checks for Understanding and Feedback

CEC 4.1. 4.3.

Checks for understanding:

 do not occur during the lesson to assess students' progress towards the objective(s)

Opportunities for students to demonstrate their learning

 students are not provided opportunities to demonstrate their learning, to relearn, redo or be reassessed.

Student self-assessment

 students are not taught or expected to self-assess their work in relation to established criteria for success

Feedback to students is:

not specific or timely

Checks for understanding:

- occur during the lesson but the data is not used to adjust instruction
- data is gathered from some but not all students

Opportunities for students to demonstrate their learning

- students are given only a single opportunity to demonstrate their learning
- students are provided an opportunity to redo or be reassessed without an opportunity to relearn

Student self-assessment

 students are not taught or expected to self-assess their work in relation to established criteria for success

Feedback to students is:

- timely
- related to established criteria for success
- not accompanied by a clear expectation that the student will use the feedback to revise or improve their performance

Checks for understanding:

- occur frequently and at critical moments throughout the lesson
- assess student progress towards the objective
- data is gathered from all students
- data is used to adjust instruction

Opportunities for students to demonstrate their learning

- students are given multiple opportunities and options to demonstrate their learning
- reteaching is provided for students who need it
- students are given opportunities to redo and to be reassessed on assignments/tasks

Student self-assessment

 students are taught and expected to self-assess their work in relation to established criteria for success

Feedback to student is:

- timely
- frequent
- specifically related to established criteria for success
- matched to student/s
- accompanied by a clear expectation that the student will use the feedback to revise or improve performance

AND

Student self-assessment:

 Students can independently selfassess and determine the steps needed to improve.

 Students are taught – and receive guided practice on – how to provide academically focused feedback to each other.

^{*}Explanatory devices are defined as analogies, metaphors, gestures, demonstrations, modeling, think-aloud, physical models, visual representations, graphic organizers, interactive whiteboards, mental imagery, presentation software, minimal and progressive cueing, simulations, educational games, and role plays.

Logically aligned means to consider the knowledge and activities necessary to accomplish the objective, a progression in level of difficulty (Blooms Taxonomy), and the gradual release of responsibility to enable students to transfer, retain, and independently apply their learning.
